WOLVERINE STEEL SPADES

Wolverine Steel

Spades are constructed of high carbon, chromoly steel. Together, the all steel handle and blade provide durability and prying strength unmatched by any other spade on the market.

- * Solid steel blade is 0.035" thicker than a forged blade, creating a more rigid shovel with less breakage and a longer sharpening life
- * Extra thick, 0.115" chromoly steel blades are heat treated for extra strength
- * Blades are mill sharpened, providing razor sharp edges that make cutting large roots and tough soils painless
- * Spades are predrilled on both sides to accept an optional rubber footpad
- * Closed back, forward turned step
